Seed Grant Application

General Guidelines for GENUS Seed Grant Application Submission:

1. Only one application per person per annum
2. All sections of the application must be filled in unless otherwise stipulated
3. Do not include pictures, tables, figures, or diagrams
4. Font and Font size: Calibri 12 pt
5. Plagiarism is an automatic rejection
6. Along with this application, an updated CV in PDF format submitted to info.genus@wits.ac.za
7. Once the application and required documents are emailed to Genus, no alterations or requests will be entertained

Title:
Surname:
First names:
Primary email:
Cell number:
Date of birth (date/month/year):
Race (Black, Coloured, Indian or White):
Gender identity:
Disabled (yes or no):
Citizenship:
a. South African identification or permanent residency number:
b. If non-South Africa, a passport number is required:
c. Visa expiry date for non-South Africans:
ORCID number:
University: Department:
Staff number:
NRF Rating:
Do you have another source of funding outside of GENUS? List below the funding sources you are currently receiving, the amount, and the year when funding ends:
Are you applying for additional funding outside of GENUS? List the Funding Organisation, amount, and start and end date of the grant:

Research Themes (select only one): • Evolutionary Process • Cultural & Behavioural Evolution • Palaeo-environments & Palaeoclimates
Start date of grant:

Title (short and concise)

Abstract (350 words)

Provide full details of why you are applying for a GENUS Seed Grant (2000 words), including, but not limited to:

- Project details
- Rationale and objectives
- Expected engagements initiatives
- Student training

Additional information that GENUS should be aware of? (2000 words)

Budget

Provide a realistic budget with contingencies and justifications.

Expenses (field expenses, special analysis costs, travel, personnel, etc.)	Amount (Rand)
A:
B:
C:
D:
E:
F:
TOTAL:	R
Justification A:
Justification B:
Justification C:
Justification D:
Justification E:
Justification F:

Signature of Applicant   Date